

Drops of Crete – A Tasting Tour

TOUR PLAN DETAILS

Itinerary

- This tour starts at 9:00 am from Chania and after your pick up we head towards the orange valley.
- We will drive through the valley and make our first stop in the area of the lake, where you will have time to admire the natural beauty of this green & full of wildlife place.
- Then we will drive to the village where is situated the family winery. There you will enjoy a private guided tour through the facilities, the wine cellar, and of course you will try a selection of wines, during your wine tasting session.
- Later on, we will continue our journey and we will arrive at the family olive farm. There you will visit an olive oil mill and you will have the chance to see how organic extra virgin olive oil is made. There you will taste different olive oils of Crete.
- At last we will arrive at the local brewery. This place is a family micro-brewery and there you will enjoy a guided tour, learn how beer is made, plus try five different selected bio beers in a beer tasting session.
- During all the tour you will have time for many stops in beautiful landscapes, take plenty of photos and learn a lot about Cretan culture and life.
