

WW2 – The Battle of Crete

TOUR PLAN DETAILS

Itinerary

- This tour starts at 9:00 am from Chania region and after your pick up we head towards Souda bay, where we visit the commonwealth cemetery at 42nd street.
- After this we visit the wider area of Maleme, where the main war airfield is situated, the cemetery of the German forces, and the RAF monument.
- Our second place of interest is Galatas where many important things about the battle took. Place if possible we'll visit also a private collection of war artifacts and speak with the owner.
- The next place we 'll visit is Vouves, where the oldest olive tree of the world is situated and there we 'll relax and enjoy our homemade Cretan meal and of course taste the "raki".
- In our way back we 'll pass from the area Agioi Apostoloi and see the former 7th General hospital and later POW camp.
- During all the tour you will have time for many stops in beautiful landscapes, take many photos, and learn about Cretan culture and life.

What's included

- Private transportation from and to your location with A/C vehicle.
- English and French speaking local tour escort and guiding services.
- Entrance fees for the places which is required.
- Traditional homemade lunch, with wine and "raki".
- VAT, local taxes and fees, liability insurance.

Important notes!

- This tour involves a lot of history!
- Friendly for people with disabilities: You must be able to get in and out of car.
- This tour can be specialized in nationalities information, or other interests about war, if requested in advance via e-mail.

Nations involved

- British, Australian, New Zealanders, Germans, Italians in battle.